

Hainle Vineyards - 2010 Gewürztraminer Icewine

2010 Hainle Vineyards Gewürztraminer Icewine

Protected by international law, Icewine is the only wine in the world which still has to be made traditional like in the mid 1800's in order to carry the name Icewine on the label. Icewine is also the rarest and most desired wine in the world. It is on average the most expensive wine sold in the world. Icewine is one of a view wines which will last over 100 years if stored proper. Because of this, Icewine is a great desired collectors wine. At international wine auctions Icewine archives many times prices higher than the rarest wines in the world surpassing wines from Bordeaux or Burgundy.

Harvest	November 24th 2010 at minus 17 Celsius
Avg.sugar	39%
Bottling	July 22nd 2013, during Prince George's Birthday
Cases	200
Alc/Vol	12.5 %
Residual sugar	99.9 g/l
Acid	7.8 g/l
Cellar Potential	100+