

Hainle Vineyards - 2014 Hainle Grand Reserve Red

2014 Hainle Grand Reserve Red

2014 was an extremely good year for red wine. Nice and hot yet still enough rain to ripen our red wine grapes naturally without having to irrigate the vines. Our 2014 harvest stayed in medium Toast French oak barrels for 30 months. With this wine we wanted to create a typical Canadian Bordeaux style consisting of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon. In addition to these noble grapes we added our famous Pinot Noir and Zweigelt in order to get a more fruity wine. With this 2014 Grand Reserve Blend we have created our own house blend which already won top 1% in the world a few weeks after it was first bottled in 2016 for competitions. The wine starts out with the typical characteristics of a full bodied Bordeaux style wine. Black current, Black Jerrys, Leather, and good spices are very dominant in this blend. On the finish you get a great long finish with the extra Blackberry and Bacon taste. Overall this wine is a great wine to bring to a wine collector and will cellar well over 20 years. It is our employees favourite red and highly recommended
